The diagram illustrates the electronic pack B components. At the top, the text 'PACK B' and 'CHART TABLE' is displayed. Below this, three items are listed: 'ZM 16 16" touch screen', 'Zeus² black box', and 'ZC2 Remote'. Each item is accompanied by a small image: the ZM 16 is a large digital display showing various navigation data; the Zeus² is a black rectangular power distribution unit; and the ZC2 is a black remote control. Below these three items, a single power distribution block is shown with three cables connecting to it, one from each of the three components above.
